Message from the Chair of the Board of Directors

For 45 years, TVO has built a reputation based on trust and quality as the technological extension of Ontario's public education system. Today, TVO's educational content reaches millions of Ontarians on-air, online and on mobile devices.

TVO delivers unique value. We are focused on delivering impact in digital education and current affairs. We are committed to creating deep educational experiences that help all Ontarians realize their potential through learning, thereby strengthening the engagement of citizens and helping to build strong communities.

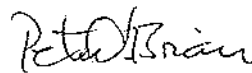

On behalf of the Board of Directors of TVO, I applaud Lisa de Wilde for her leadership and vision in transforming TVO into the innovative digital learning organization it is today. I would also like to commend TVO's dedicated team who work tirelessly to deliver on our vision. And of course, I am thankful to my fellow Board members for their insight and commitment to TVO. In this report, you'll see how TVO has made great progress in delivering on its New Strategic Directions.

I would like to recognize the valued input of TVO's Regional Councillors Advisory Board who provide important links between TVO and Ontario communities and expand the reach of our educational resources.

Lastly, I would also like to acknowledge the support of the Government of Ontario, corporate sponsors and the thousands of Ontarians who give generously and choose to support TVO.

I am very proud of what TVO has accomplished this year. As a leader in digital education, current affairs and documentaries, TVO has an incredibly exciting future.

Peter O'Brian
Chair of the Board of Directors

Message from the Chief Executive Officer

In 1970, Ontario Premier Bill Davis created TVO as the technological extension of the public education system. In an era of black-and-white TVs and rabbit-ear reception, Premier Davis had a bold vision – he believed that technology could improve the education offered to Ontarians.

Today, TVO is leveraging digital technology to ignite the potential that lies within everyone through learning.

TVO is providing all Ontarians opportunities to learn on every screen.

Transformation Strategy

Linear television is in its autumn years. Traditional media companies are facing disruption and declining market share as consumers choose new options. Content producers, distributors and broadcasters must find innovative business models in order to survive and thrive.

Learning is changing. Today, learning is authentic, collaborative, personalized, transformative, complex and social. Digital learning presents TVO with opportunities to deliver more impact to the citizens of Ontario. TVO is moving into the traditional classroom with digital learning resources, as we are uniquely positioned to marshal expertise at the intersection of curriculum, pedagogy and technology.

TVO is gaining momentum as the organization delivers on our ambitious five-year plan that began in 2013–2014.

The plan outlines our key strategies, which are to

- be the Government of Ontario's partner for digital learning;

- be the digital public space for Ontario-perspective in-depth current affairs; and
- empower our employees to thrive in an organization that embraces continual change.

TVO is delivering on these strategies with innovative educational products, in-depth current affairs, groundbreaking documentaries, and award-winning TVOKids content.

In year one of our five-year plan, TVO established the plan, built the senior team and reorganized the team to deliver on the new strategies. In year two, 2014–2015, new divisional strategies were created for the Current Affairs and Documentaries and Digital Education divisions, and key projects were initiated, including TeachOntario, a new tvo.org, the tvokids.com mobile-responsive site, and the development of a suite of new digital math resources. New revenue opportunities, driven from our mandate-based products like TVO's Homework Help and ILC, were investigated.

In the third year of our plan, 2015–2016, TVO will continue to launch new products that will provide value to the citizens of Ontario.

Supporting Learners with Innovative Educational Products

Digital technology makes it possible to customize every child's education thanks to the innovative use of games, virtual reality and the global connectedness which already defines our lives.

To support teachers in improving student outcomes, TVO introduced TeachOntario, a new platform for sharing, collaboration and knowledge exchange amongst educators across Ontario. Although still in a beta phase, TeachOntario already reaches more than 1,500 teachers from every corner of our vast province and offers online collaboration as part of TVO's commitment to support learning inside the classroom.

To support Ontario's students, TVO offers Homework Help, a free online math tutoring service for those in grades 7–10.

“Thank you @tvo for broadcasting historian Norm Christie’s excellent new 4-part series The Great War.”

–The Hon. James Moore, Minister of Industry,
Government of Canada via Twitter

Students who use Homework Help demonstrate improved EQAO math results. Also operated by TVO, the Independent Learning Centre (ILC) is Ontario’s largest high school with approximately 20,000 students earning credits towards a diploma or a prerequisite for post-secondary admission.

Getting Kids Ready for Success in School and in Life

TVO is the most watched television channel among children in Ontario during the TVOKids block¹, proving that there’s a demand for high-quality children’s educational media. TVO is also the most trusted and most educational² media brand for children among Ontarians.

TVOKids provides our youngest minds with fun and engaging digital learning opportunities. In the past year, amongst many other programs, TVOKids introduced Hi Opie!, a new series and interactive website that prepares pre-school children for kindergarten; Odd Squad, which helps kids solve mysteries while strengthening math skills; and Annedroids, which features a female kid scientist who invents androids and problem-solves with her friends.

We also launched a mobile-responsive website for TVOKids.com, as well as new games, including Frantic Find, that strengthen spatial sense in primary learners, a key part of building future math success.

Our primary objective for TVOKids (both on TV and online) is to improve student outcomes, not generate toy sales or advertising revenues.

Engaged Citizens, Strong Communities

Communities function best where social trust is high, where people shoulder the responsibilities of active citizenship while appreciating its privileges. Social trust is a real competitive advantage in this globalized world. It enables individuals to grow into active citizens and be empowered to build strong, vibrant communities. TVO believes in the vital role that education, the great equalizer, plays in building strong communities.

The values of journalism – editorial integrity, independence, quality and diversity – which are fundamental to the functioning of democratic societies, are more important than ever. This year, TVO will build out the digital public space for Ontario current affairs, creating an online meeting place for meaningful public conversation about the big issues of the day. By launching multi-platform narrative themes on the redesigned website, tvo.org, we will provide a virtual public meeting place to deepen understanding of the events that shape our world. Next year, The Agenda with Steve Paikin will mark its tenth season and will be refreshed to provide more ways for more Ontarians to join the conversation.

TVO’s groundbreaking documentaries are aligned with our current affairs content and illuminate the complex issues of the modern Ontario experience.

The TVO-commissioned documentary Out of Mind, Out of Sight: Inside the Brockville Psych features the complexities of mental health as it asks: what happens to those who suffer from mental illness and commit violent crimes? This gripping and award-winning documentary reveals the stories of patients who are struggling to gain control over their lives, and like so many TVO docs, raises awareness about important societal issues.

TVO also presented the world premiere of the 10-part documentary series, The Polar Sea, an international co-production that shines a light on climate change in the Arctic. Its digital companion piece, Polar Sea 360 (an Ontario innovation), brought viewers into a fully immersive online experience. With all commissioned documentaries, TVO seeks opportunities to feature complementary interactive online content to extend the experience and provide more depth.

TVO’s prime-time block ranks number one among Ontario viewers of non-sports specialty stations, and has ranked in the top three for the past five years.

Financial Sustainability

Generous support from the Government of Ontario allows TVO to innovate and provide the very best value to Ontarians. TVO is a charity and relies on the support of donors and sponsors to fulfill its mandate and to alleviate pressure on government funding. In the past year, the organization continued to find cost savings to direct to new activities and pursued a strategy of monetizing TVO's products.

We are fortunate to receive support from more than 33,000 committed donors, and grateful to have received a transformative donation in the amount of $2.5 million through the generosity of avid TVO fan Mr. Donald Pounder. In keeping with Mr. Pounder's wishes, 25 per cent of his bequest will be directed towards The Agenda with Steve Paikin. This gift will allow us to produce new products that support digital learning and engage the citizens of Ontario.

TVO contributes to the Canadian independent production industry: our participation in the production of documentaries and TVOKids programs supports high-quality jobs and triggers budgets for Ontario independent producers of $25 million each year.

TVO's government funding amounts to the cost of a donut and a coffee per person per year, delivering tremendous value for Ontarians.

Empowering Our Team

TVO is building a values-based culture of innovation, empowering team members to deliver TVO's strategy and thrive in an organization that embraces continual change.

Our passion for learning is built into our values:

- excellence and innovation,
- collaboration,
- ownership,
- respect, and
- trust.

TVO is committed to providing training and professional development for our staff. One example is the award-winning OCAD University training program (see page 27). TVO's team is encouraged to obtain an average of five training days per year as a performance goal. By strengthening the team's digital skills, TVO delivers the best possible educational products and maximizes the impact of every dollar.

Innovation Shapes Our Future

TVO is playing an important role in Ontario's education ecosystem by leveraging our expertise at the junction of curriculum, pedagogy and technology. TVO has much to offer – inside and outside the classroom, on broadcast, online and on social media. Our record of success shows that we consistently meet the demand for high-quality educational content that enhances the very fabric of our province.

We are committed to leading the way by offering innovative educational experiences, helping students of all ages achieve their potential. We are also building a digital public space for in-depth discussion to increase understanding of the big issues confronting us as citizens of Ontario.

As we move forward with our ambitious five-year plan, we are committed to providing value and to serving the people of Ontario on their journey of learning.

Performance Highlights

TVO's operating plan is composed of five strategic priorities:

1. Digital Learning
2. Citizen Engagement
3. Great Place to Work
4. Strategic Growth
5. Financial Sustainability

The following section details TVO's growth and progress within these priorities.

1. Digital Learning

TVO is a leader in the educational landscape. TVO creates innovative digital education programs, services and resources to support learning both inside and outside of the classroom.

TVO's digital learning content starts with an educational objective from the Ontario school curriculum. TVO's Educational Blueprint helps to respond to the complexity and engagement required today – it is a rigorous approach that ensures that TVO products and services use an evidence-based instructional design process. Informed by research, evidence and the input of education specialists, the blueprint process also includes testing content with students and teachers in Ontario classrooms.

TVO is focused on strengthening STEAM (science, technology, engineering, arts and math) skills through engaging experiences that leverage the power of digital media.

TVO's educational content supports the Ministry of Education's 2014 Achieving Excellence vision, and provides Ontario teachers and students with the digital tools, programs and resources they need to succeed.

The Hon. Liz Sandals, Ontario's Minister of Education, invited Opie (the star of Hi Opie!) to join her in a Toronto kindergarten classroom for the first day of school in September 2014.

“Honestly, I’m so glad that TVO is making an investment in a show like this. As the father of a four-year-old girl who loves, in her words, ‘doing science’ (her most popular experiment is tying various toys to her helium balloons to see which will float in the air), shows like Annedroids can only help to normalize and encourage such passions.”

–Joe Boughner, Yummymummyclub.ca

“It’s not ‘ugh, math’...but a more ‘oh, that’s soooo cool’-math!”

–Sonya Davidson, urbanmoms.ca on Odd Squad

The Independent Learning Centre (ILC)

TVO operates Ontario’s largest high school, the Independent Learning Centre (ILC) (ilc.org), which grants Ontario Secondary School Diplomas and GED (General Educational Development) credits. Key to reaching potential and building a skilled workforce, the ILC provides a pathway to post-secondary education. Students enroll in online learning to earn credits towards their diploma or as a prerequisite for entering a post-secondary program. The ILC is student-centred, with continuous in-take all year and opportunities for students to complete courses at their own pace. ILC graduates vary in age, with 2014 grads ranging from 17 to 83 years old.

Highlights:

- The ILC is Ontario’s largest high school with 19,436 students registered for 26,363 courses.
- Almost half of ILC’s student population goes on to apply to post-secondary educational institutions with the credits they have earned from ILC courses.
- More than 2,000 students completed the seven-hour set of GED tests in the subjects of writing, language arts, reading, mathematics, social studies and science – affording them the opportunity to upskill and helping to bolster the workforce.

Homework Help

Homework Help (homeworkhelp.ilc.org) is a free online math resource for students in grades 7-10 with live, one-on-one tutoring from Ontario-certified teachers. Interactive video tutorials and listen-and-learn sessions are available 24/7, and students are able to connect with teacher-tutors online after school, in the evenings.

“The tutors were really helpful and nice. Even if you’re stuck on a problem, they will explain it a few times and will help you all the way through to the end of the question to make sure you understand it. It made me more confident in my classroom because if I wasn’t clear on the lessons, I knew I could always go to the 24/7 resources and check out the videos. When I had math homework, I would look for those resources.”

– Alexandra B., grade 10 student

CSTD commended TVO’s OCAD training as “an innovative and ambitious program that outlines an efficient methodology to develop an organization-wide training initiative through clear learning objectives, research partnerships, innovative assessment and evaluation tools and cross-team participation.”

4. Strategic Growth

TVO undertook an ambitious number of key projects to support the organization's new plan.

During the second year of the five-year plan, TVO developed new products and platforms in digital education and current affairs, implemented product development processes, researched key revenue opportunities, and developed the brand in alignment with the plan.

- TVO instituted a product development framework that is responsive to audiences and nimble in execution, and ensures continuous improvement to meet strategic objectives.

5. Financial Sustainability

Financial Controls

TVO continually examines its operations in search of efficiencies and to realize ongoing productivity gains. TVO remains fiscally responsible with controlled spending while still investing in the production and development of new content and new products. TVO's compound growth rate of expenses is less than one per cent over the past five years, which is under the rate of inflation.

Funding from the Government of Ontario translates to the price of a coffee and a donut per Ontarian every year.

Self-Generated Revenues

Self-generated revenues are fundamental to TVO's financial sustainability. TVO is a charity and relies on the support of donors and sponsors to fulfill its mandate and to alleviate pressure on government funding. The organization is dedicated to strengthening its relationship with corporate and community partners to expand its reach and deepen its impact across Ontario. Another important source of self-generated revenues is produced through the offering of the ILC's Ontario curriculum-based courses to both Ontarians and to international students. TVO also generates revenues from the rental of available space on its transmitter towers across Ontario to other broadcasters, and earns fees by providing tower maintenance services to these broadcasters.

Highlights:

- More than 33,000 Ontarians showed their support for TVO by making a financial contribution to our philanthropic programs. TVO's Producers' Club, the organization's monthly giving program, boasts 10,000 members.
- The bequest of $2.5 million from the estate of avid TVO fan Mr. Donald Pounder marked the single largest gift ever made by an individual to TVO. (See page 42 for the full story.)

A Transformative Legacy Gift

TVO is both honoured and grateful to have received a donation in the amount of $2.5 million through the generosity of an avid TVO fan, Mr. Donald Pounder. Mr. Pounder's donation is the single largest gift ever made by an individual to TVO.

Mr. Pounder was a passionate TVO viewer of The Agenda with Steve Paikin – he enjoyed telling people that The Agenda and Steve were like family to him, especially in the later years of his life. In keeping with Mr. Pounder's wishes, 25 per cent of his bequest will be directed toward The Agenda – the program that he cared so deeply about. This transformative gift will also allow us to practice innovation, test new educational products that support digital learning, and engage the citizens of Ontario.

Mr. Pounder was a graduate of the University of Toronto, and held a master's degree in mathematics from the Illinois Institute of Technology. He applied his academic training to a varied career that took him to Avro Canada and IBM. His interests included gliding and music history, and he was an active member of the Canadian Amateur Musicians of Canada.

TVO and RBC Committed to Children's Mental Health

Last year TVO was a proud recipient of a $50,000 grant from the RBC Foundation as part of RBC's Children's Mental Health Project. The grant is being used towards TVOKids HelpZone and It Matters – two TVOKids programs that align with RBC's promise to help keep kids healthy inside and out, and with the Ministry of Education's priority of promoting student well-being.

Programs like TVOKids HelpZone and the companion series It Matters demonstrate TVO's investment in children's mental health and support of the Ministry's focus on promoting well-being. TVO is dedicated to helping empower our younger citizens by supporting their emotional development, giving them a voice and helping them achieve success.

"One out of every five North American children suffers from a mental health problem," says Gayle Corcoran, Director of Community and Cultural Marketing at the RBC Foundation. "Our involvement with TVOKids HelpZone and It Matters helps us to make a difference by funding programs that focus on early intervention, reducing stigma and increasing public awareness."

"We are immensely grateful to the RBC Foundation for their generous support," says Karen Grose, Vice President of Digital Education at TVO. "Good mental health in kids is a cornerstone of successful learning, and TVOKids is committed to initiatives that support discussion and education around this important issue."

TVO can only continue to deliver this unique type of programming thanks to the generosity of our donors and dedicated partners like the RBC Foundation.

Management's Responsibility for Financial Statements

The accompanying financial statements of the Ontario Educational Communications Authority have been prepared in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards and are the responsibility of management. The preparation of financial statements necessarily involves the use of estimates based on management's judgement, particularly when transactions affecting the current accounting period cannot be finalized with certainty until future periods. The financial statements have been properly prepared within reasonable limits of materiality and in light of information available up to June 24, 2015.

Management maintains a system of internal controls designed to provide reasonable assurance that the assets are safeguarded and that reliable financial information is available on a timely basis. The system includes formal policies and procedures and an organizational structure that provides for appropriate delegation of authority and segregation of responsibilities. The Internal Audit Department independently evaluates the effectiveness of these internal controls on a periodic basis and reports its findings to management and to the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors is responsible for ensuring that management fulfills its responsibilities for financial reporting and internal controls. The Board reviews and approves the financial statements. The Audit Committee of the Board meets periodically with management, Internal Audit, and the Office of the Auditor General of Ontario to discuss audit, internal control, accounting policy, and financial reporting matters.

The financial statements have been audited by the Office of the Auditor General of Ontario. The Auditor General's responsibility is to express an opinion on whether the financial statements are fairly presented in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. The Independent Auditor's Report, which appears on the following page, outlines the scope of the Auditor General's examination and opinion.

On behalf of Management:

Lisa de Wilde
Chief Executive Officer

Office of the Auditor General of Ontario

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Ontario Educational Communications Authority and to the Minister of Education

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Ontario Educational Communications Authority, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2015 and the statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Ontario Educational Communications Authority as at March 31, 2015 and the results of its operations, and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

1. AUTHORITY AND MANDATE

The Ontario Educational Communications Authority (the "Authority") is a Crown Corporation of the Province of Ontario that was created in June 1970 by the Ontario Educational Communications Authority Act. In accordance with the Act, the Authority's main objective is to initiate, acquire, produce, distribute, exhibit or otherwise deal in programs and materials in the educational broadcasting and communications fields. The Authority is licensed by the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission ("CRTC") to broadcast English-language educational television programs. The broadcasting licence is subject to renewal by the CRTC and the current licence is for the period September 1, 2008 to August 31, 2015.

The Authority is a registered charitable organization which may issue income tax receipts for contributions. As a Crown Corporation of the Province of Ontario, the Authority is exempt from income taxes.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Authority have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian Public Sector Accounting Standards for Government Not-for-Profit Organizations.

(b) Inventories held for consumption

Inventories held for consumption, consisting of maintenance supplies and media tapes, are valued at cost where cost is determined on a first-in-first-out basis, net of an allowance for obsolescence.

(c) Capital Assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Capital assets are amortized on a straight line basis over the following terms beginning the year following acquisition:

Capital Assets
Building	30 years
Transmitters	17 years
Transmitter Monitoring Equipment	7 years
In House Technical Equipment	7 years
Leasehold Improvements	5 years
Computer Equipment	5 years
Office Furniture and Fixtures	15 years
Office Equipment	10 years
Vehicles	5 years
Computer Software	3-5 years
ARO (Asset Retirement Obligation) Transmitters	17 years

The Authority reviews the carrying amounts of its capital assets on an annual basis. When a capital asset no longer has any long-term service potential, the Authority will recognize an expense (write-down) equal to the excess of its net carrying amount over any residual value.

Financial Statements

(d) Revenue Recognition

1. The Authority follows the deferral method of accounting for grants and contributions whereby restricted grants, contributions and bequests are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted grants, contributions and bequests are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.
2. Revenue from grants and contributions restricted for the purchase of capital assets is deferred and amortized over the same period of use as the related capital asset.
3. Revenue from the licensing of program material is recognized when the program material is delivered.
4. Individual donations are recorded on a cash basis. Contributions from corporate sponsors are recognized equally over the period the sponsorship program is delivered by the Authority.
5. Revenue from sponsorship is recognized when the content is broadcast or webcast.
6. Student fees for courses offered by the Independent Learning Centre (ILC) are recognized as revenue at the time of enrolment. Registration fees for General Education Development (GED) are recognized at the time the test is taken by the registrants.

(e) Employee Future Benefits

The Authority accrues its obligations under employee defined benefit pension plans and the related costs, net of plan assets. The following policies have been adopted:

1. The cost of pension benefits and other post-retirement benefits is determined by independent actuaries based on management's best estimate assumptions using the projected benefits method prorated on service.
2. Past service costs and any transitional asset or obligation are amortized over the expected average remaining service period of active plan members.
3. Actuarial gains/(losses) are recognized and amortized over the expected average remaining service period of active plan members.
4. The expected return on plan assets is based on the fair value of plan assets.

(f) Broadcast Rights and Production Costs

Broadcast rights and production costs are accounted for as follows:

- Current events and network promotion programs produced by the Authority are expensed in the year the costs are incurred.
- All other programs produced by the Authority and programs licensed under co-production, pre-buy and acquisition contracts are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is calculated on a straight line basis over the following periods:
 - Program licence acquired: term of contract
 - Program produced by the Authority: four years

Financial Statements

(g) Financial Instruments

The Authority's financial instruments are accounted for as follows:

- Cash and short-term investments, including those held for capital renewal, are measured at amortized cost.
- Accounts receivable are stated at amortized cost.
- Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are stated at cost.

(h) Asset Retirement Obligation

Liabilities are recognized for statutory, contractual or legal obligations, associated with the retirement of property, plant and equipment when those obligations result from the acquisition, construction, development or normal operation of the asset. The obligations are initially measured at fair value, determined using present value methodology, and the resulting costs capitalized into the carrying amount of the related asset. In subsequent periods, the liability is adjusted for the accretion of discount and any changes in the amount or timing of the underlying future cash flows. The capitalized asset retirement cost is amortized on the same basis as the related asset and the discount accretion is included in determining the results of operations. The Authority recognizes a liability for future decommissioning of its transmitter facilities.

(i) Measurement Uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards requires Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingencies at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Items requiring the use of significant estimates include retirement benefit obligations and useful life of capital assets and broadcast rights. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(j) Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses include, property tax, cleaning, hydro, software support and other prepaids and are charged to expense over the period the Authority is expected to benefit from the expenditure.

(k) Expenses

Expenses are reported on an accrual basis. The cost of all goods consumed and services received during the year is expensed.

3. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Cash and cash equivalents

The Authority's cash equivalents consist of short-term, high-grade Canadian dollar investments. These investments mature within 365 days and had an average yield of 1.5% (2014 – 1.6%).

Financial Statements

Operating line of credit

As part of its financial arrangements, the Authority negotiated a demand revolving line of credit with CIBC. The maximum available credit under the facility is $1.0 million (2014 – $1.0 million). The line of credit is unsecured and bears interest at the bank's prime lending rate. As at March 31, 2015, no amount (2014 – $0) was outstanding under the facility.

Risk disclosures

(a) Liquidity risk:

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Authority will not be able to meet its cash flow obligations as they fall due. The Authority manages its liquidity risk by monitoring its operating requirements and prepares budget and cash forecasts to ensure it has sufficient funds to fulfill its obligations. It is management's opinion that the Authority is not exposed to significant liquidity risk.

(b) Credit risk:

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. The Authority is exposed to credit risk arising from its accounts receivable. Given the amount of the Authority's accounts receivable and past experience regarding payments, management believes that the Authority is not exposed to significant credit risk.

(c) Interest rate risk:

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Due to the short-term nature of the Authority's financial instruments, their carrying value approximates fair value and as a result management believes that the Authority is not exposed to significant interest rate risk.

(d) Foreign currency risk:

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Authority maintains a U.S. dollar bank account. Its balance was not large enough at any time during the year to expose the Authority to significant currency risks.

It is management's opinion that the Authority is not exposed to significant liquidity, credit, interest rate or currency risk.

4. EMPLOYEE FUTURE BENEFITS

The pension and other post-employment benefit plans have the following components:

(a) Registered pension plans:

- Main Pension Plan – Most employees of the Authority are members of this plan, which consists of three elements – a non-contributory, defined benefit, best average earnings and years of service element; a contributory, defined contribution element; and a non-contributory, defined contribution element.
- Executive Pension Plan – Executives are members of this non-contributory, defined benefit, best average earnings and years of service plan.

(b) Supplementary retirement plan:

- Certain employees are members of this unregistered and non-contributory plan which funds the portion of pension entitlements in excess of the maximum allowed for registered pension plans under the federal Income Tax Act.

The employee future benefits payable under the defined benefit plans are adjusted for inflation based on the consumer price index up to a maximum of 3% per year.

Financial Statements

(c) Post-employment benefits plan:

- The Authority offers post-employment benefits such as health care, dental care, and life insurance on a shared cost basis.

The most recent actuarial valuation for funding purposes of the registered defined benefit pension plans was as of January 1, 2014. The next valuation for funding purposes is no later than as of January 1, 2017.

Information about the Authority's pension and other benefit plans is presented in the following table.

Asset category	Percentage of Total Fair Value of Plan Assets
	2014	2013
Equity securities	54%	56%
Debt securities	41%	39%

The actual investment return on pension plan assets was 7.6% in 2015 (2014 – 16.1%).

5. INVESTMENTS HELD FOR CAPITAL RENEWAL

To ensure that the Authority's technical capital assets keep pace with technological changes and can be maintained or replaced when needed, the Capital Renewal Fund was established in 1984. Up to fiscal 2008/09, the Authority set aside up to 2% of the funding received as contribution to the Capital Renewal Fund. Available funds are invested in short-term deposits maturing within 365 days that earned an average interest rate of 1.3% (2014 – 1.4%) during the fiscal year. The changes in the fund are as follows:

($000s)	2015	2014

Asset Retirement Obligation

The Authority recognized a liability for future decommissioning of its transmitter facilities which was required under their respective leases. In determining the fair value of its asset retirement obligations, the Authority discounted the associated cash flows at credit-adjusted risk free rates. The total undiscounted amount of the estimated future obligations is $316,000 (2014 – $316,000).

Revenue will be recognized in future years when expenditures are incurred toward new projects associated with The Agenda.

The Authority has internally restricted the remaining 75% of the bequest for new projects or enhancement of existing products or services as approved by the Board of Directors. This amount is recognized as Bequest revenue in the Statement of Operations and as Internally Restricted Net Assets in the Statement of Financial Position.

17. CONTINGENCIES

A contingency is an existing situation involving uncertainty as to the possible gain or loss to the Authority, the ultimate outcome of which cannot be predicted with certainty. Contingent losses refer to legal claims that have been made against the Authority, and management does not expect that the outcome of the claims will have a material and adverse effect on its results. Contingent gains refer to an insurance claim resulting from a flood at the Authority's premises on August 27, 2014, which caused water damage to some of the Authority's production equipment. Negotiations are ongoing with the Authority's insurance company.

No amounts have been recognized in the accounts for contingent gains or losses due to the uncertain outcome. Any settlements will be accounted for at the time of settlement.

18. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Authority is a Crown Corporation of the Province of Ontario and is therefore a related party to other organizations that are controlled by or subject to significant influence by the Province. Specifically, the Authority received revenue from Ontario school boards for Independent Learning Centre (ILC) course fees and sales of educational materials. These transactions were recorded at exchange amounts agreed to by the related parties.

Non-grant revenue received from related parties during the year is as follows:
